

VOICES That Heal

VOICES That Heal:
Music in a Time of Change
Sponsored by Winston J. Willis
in loving memory of his wife, Barbara
Willis

Tuesday, December 15 @ 11:00 a.m. & 7:00 p.m. Eastern Hospice Savannah is proud to partner with the Savannah VOICE Festival to present a series of informative “listening labs” featuring songs and music from various genres which comfort, soothe and heal the soul. This listening lab features the Festival’s Education and Outreach Coordinator, Chad Sonka, and our former Certified Music Therapist, Sara Breyfogle MS, LPMT, MT-BC.

Biographies

Chad Sonka is establishing himself as a versatile American baritone, teacher, and director. He was a featured artist with the Franklin County Young Artists Festival this spring. Most recently, he performed as the baritone soloist in Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem at Carnegie Hall with Iowa State University and Mahler's Kindertotenlieder with Oneota Valley Community Orchestra. Previous performing credits: Tosca (Scarpia – cover) with Central City Opera; Gianni Schicchi (Marco) with Savannah Music Festival; Man of La Mancha (Don Quixote) and Carmen (Dancaïro) with Cedar Rapids Opera Theatre; The Mother of Us All (Virgil T.), The Rape of Lucretia (Junius), Faust (Wagner), Elijah (Elijah) with Manhattan School of Music; and Amahl and the Night Visitors (King Melchior) with Nevada Opera. He was the first-place winner of the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions – Iowa District in 2017. Chad is an active voice teacher and director and currently serves on voice faculty at Iowa State University. He is also the Education and Outreach Coordinator with Savannah VOICE Festival and VOICEexperience. Directing credits include multiple scenes programs, Cendrillon (Viardot), Hansel and Gretel (Humperdinck), The Little Prince (Portman), Dido and Aeneas (Purcell).

Sara Breyfogle, MS, LPMT, MT-BC

Sara is a board-certified music therapist, licensed to practice music therapy in the state of Georgia. Sara holds a master's degree in music therapy from Radford University (2016) and a bachelor's degree in music therapy from Appalachian State University (2012). She is also a registered yoga instructor through Yoga Alliance and a Reiki Level II practitioner. She is currently pursuing advanced music therapy practice in the Bonny Method of Guided Imagery and Music.

She provides compassionate service to Hospice Savannah patients and bereavement clients using her talents in music therapy, meditative chant, and relaxation techniques. Her goal is to work collaboratively with healthcare professionals as well as the broader community to increase access and awareness to music therapy services.
